Welcome Brand Guideline

Corporate Brand Identity Manual

Introduction

This Brand Guideline has been developed to ensure that the IIMT (Insight Institute of Management and Technology) identity is used consistently and respectfully across all touchpoints.

It provides clear rules on how to use the logo, colours, typography, stationery, imagery, and layouts so that every communication:

- Looks recognisably “IIMT”
- Reflects our educational values
- Speaks to a multi-cultural, island-wide audience
- Maintains clarity, professionalism and accessibility (Sinhala / Tamil / English)

Everyone who works with the IIMT brand — internal teams and external partners — should follow these guidelines.

About the IIMT Brand

IIMT is a higher education institution committed to providing accessible, high-quality education and training that supports Sri Lanka's development and global progress.

What IIMT stands for:

- Education for all: open to learners from all communities and regions
- Pathways for growth: enabling students to build skills, continue their studies and progress towards their careers
- Skilled human capital: supporting the economic development of the country through relevant technical and technological education
- Industry-linked learning: programs designed with input from industry experts and community partners
- Responsibility to society: building collaborations, internships and joint programs that address real needs

Every visual expression of the brand should reinforce these ideas: inclusive, future-ready, and grounded in quality education.

Brand Design Story

Graduation Cap

Represents education, achievement, and academic excellence.

Symbolizes the culmination of learning and the success that comes through discipline and dedication.

Reflects IIMT's core purpose — empowering students through knowledge.

Central Circle

Symbolizes the student at the heart of the institution. It reflects human potential, curiosity, and inclusivity, showing that every learner is central to IIMT's vision and purpose.

Radiating Bars

Represent growth, enlightenment, and the spread of knowledge. They signify how education at IIMT opens multiple pathways to success, radiating positive change beyond the classroom.

Shield Form

The shield symbolizes protection, strength, and institutional integrity.

It reflects IIMT as a secure and trusted educational environment, providing both knowledge and moral grounding for future leaders.

Logo Usage

The logo should be used on solid, high-contrast backgrounds. Use the main logo—white shield with a Navy Blue wordmark—on Orange backgrounds. Orange shield with a white wordmark—on Navy Blue or other dark backgrounds. A one-colour white logo may be used on black or very dark backgrounds when colour isn't suitable. For photography, choose dark, low-detail areas (or apply a subtle dark overlay) so the white logo remains clear and legible.

Usage Ratios (Guideline)

Colour Rules

Do

Use Navy Blue for main headings, header sections, and key brand blocks

Use Orange sparingly to create focus (buttons, key icons, important labels)

Ensure sufficient contrast for readability (especially for body text)

Don't

Don't use Orange as large background blocks behind long text.

Don't introduce random new colours as main brand colours.

Don't reduce contrast (e.g., light text on light backgrounds).

Sinhala & Tamil Typography

- Use clean, legible Sinhala and Tamil fonts that work harmoniously with the Latin typeface.
- Maintain similar weight and size proportions to English (for visual balance).
- Avoid overly decorative or script fonts.

Typographic Do's and Don'ts

Do

Keep line spacing generous (1.3–1.5 line height for body text).

Maintain consistent font sizes for each hierarchy level across all materials.

Use sentence case for most headings (avoid ALL CAPS for long headings).

Don't

Don't mix too many typefaces in one layout (max 2 families).

Don't use stretched, compressed or distorted fonts.

Don't use decorative or playful fonts in official materials.
